

THE STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

DISTRICT AND MUNICIPAL COURT ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 93-1

- A. Effective immediately all probation violations shall be given a separate docket number and marked as a misdemeanor.
- B. Effective immediately land use citations filed pursuant to RSA 502-A:11-a and RSA 676 should be docketed as misdemeanors.
- C. Effective immediately clerks shall record separately the number of:
- search warrants issued after regular court hours;
  - search warrants issued during regular hours;
  - Saturday morning arraignments;
  - Gerstein hearings held after regular court hours;
  - domestic violence temporary restraining order hearings held after regular court hours;
  - emergency juvenile hearings held after regular court hours (in court);
  - emergency placements made after regular court hours, pursuant to RSA 169-C:6 or detention orders, pursuant to RSA 169-B:11 or RSA 169-D:10;
  - petitions for annulment; and
  - RSA 540-A:4, VIII Landlord/Tenant ex parte orders.

These statistics shall be submitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts on the attached form at the end of each quarter.

For purposes of the above order, regular court hours are those hours during which court is generally in session.

January 13, 1993

Edwin W. Kelly
Administrative Justice